BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

SAM PRESTI

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Sam Presti enters his 17th season with the Oklahoma City Thunder franchise after being named the 11th General Manager in club history on June 7, 2007 at 29 years old, making him the second-youngest person to ever hold the position in NBA history and today Presti stands as the third-most tenured head of basketball operations in the NBA.

Prior to his second season with the Thunder, Presti was promoted to Executive Vice President and General Manager by Professional Basketball Club Chairman, Clayton I. Bennett. Presti and Bennett represent the second-longest pairing for a Governor of an NBA team and head of basketball operations.

Presti led the Thunder to the second-best record in the NBA for more than a decade stretch that spanned from 2009 through 2020. After advancing to the 2020 Playoffs, the Thunder became one of just three teams (Boston and San Antonio) to reach the postseason 10 times during the prior 11 seasons.

Since the NBA/ABA merger in 1976 the Thunder enjoyed the most successful first 15 seasons of any expansion or relocation team. The Thunder ranks first in wins per season, winning percentage, net rating, playoff series wins, Conference Finals Appearances and tied for 1st in NBA Finals appearances, compared to the other 17 expansion or relocation teams. Additionally, the Thunder ranks first with four First Team All-NBA players (nine total First Team All-NBA selections) when compared across the same timeline to those other 17 teams.

During Presti's tenure the Thunder has captured five Northwest Division Championships and reached the Conference Finals four times, including the team's trip to the NBA Finals in 2012. From 2009-2019, the Thunder averaged the second-best net rating (+4.6) and had the third-most seasons with a net rating of +6.0 or more behind only San Antonio and Golden State.

Throughout the Thunder's time in Oklahoma City, the organization has been known throughout the league as one of the premier franchises for player development. As a result, both Thunder teams and individuals have set historic marks for accomplishments at very young ages. During the past 15 seasons the Thunder became the youngest team in NBA history to win 50 games (2010), clinch a playoff berth (2010), win a playoff series (2011), advance to the NBA Finals (2012) and most recently, Oklahoma City became the youngest team in NBA history to win a play-in game (2023).

Continuing to reposition the franchise after a decade-plus of high performance, prior to the start of the 2020-21 season Presti and the Thunder executed 11 trades with 15 different teams, marking the most activity for a team in a single offseason since the advent of the NBA Draft Lottery in 1985.

Throughout his tenure, Presti has led with a method of consistent philosophies and values while using diverse roster building techniques to sustain several cycles of the Thunder. Entering the 2023-24 season Presti and the Thunder have amassed a total of 15 first-round and 20 second-round picks to accompany two first round pick swaps through the 2029 NBA Draft.

Following the 2018-19 season, Presti began repositioning and replenishing the franchise with a series of moves, acquiring Chris Paul, Gilgeous Alexander, Danilo Gallinari, eight first round draft picks and four pick swaps in separate deals involving Paul George, Russell Westbrook and Jerami Grant. In the George deal alone, the Thunder acquired five first round picks, a record for first round picks to come back in a single trade. This new version of the Thunder again made the playoffs in 2019, earning the fifth seed in the Western Conference as Presti finished second in Executive of the Year voting.

Throughout his time leading the Thunder's basketball operations efforts, Presti and his staff have enjoyed success with respect to the NBA Draft, beginning with the 2007 selection of Kevin Durant with the second overall pick. Presti went on to draft Russell Westbrook and Serge Ibaka in 2008 with the fourth and 24th selections, before taking James Harden with the third overall pick in 2009. The selections of Durant, Westbrook and Harden marked the only time in NBA history where future MVPs were selected by the same GM in three consecutive drafts. Presti and his staff have also been able to pick key contributors throughout the draft as evident by selecting Reggie Jackson 24th in 2011, Steven Adams 12th and Andre Roberson 26th in 2013 and Domantas Sabonis 11th in 2016. More recently, Josh Giddy was named the NBA's Rookie of the Month on four occasions during the 2021-22 season after being selected 6th overall in the 2021 NBA Draft and Jalen Williams finished second in Rookie of the Year voting at the conclusion of this past season after being selected 12th overall by Presti and the Thunder during the 2022 NBA Draft. Additionally, Chet Holmgren is set to make his NBA debut this season after being selected No. 2 overall in the 2022 NBA Draft.

After acquiring six-time All-Star Paul George in a landmark trade from the Indiana Pacers in June of 2017, George then signed a multi-year deal with the Thunder in the summer of 2018. This occurred the year after Oklahoma City signed Westbrook to his third multi-year contract extension in September of 2017. More recently, the Thunder signed Gilgeous-Alexander to a multi-year contract extension in 2021 and this past season Gilgeous-Alexander was named to the All-NBA First Team. During Presti's tenure the Thunder front office have either drafted or traded for 11 All-Stars (K. Durant, R. Westbrook, J. Harden, V. Oladipo, D. Sabonis, P. George, C. Anthony, C. Paul, A. Horford, K. Walker and Gilgeous Alexander). Since 2008, the Thunder leads the NBA with 16 First Team or Second Team All-NBA appearances.

With Presti at the helm, the Thunder advanced to the postseason five straight years (2010-14) and at the conclusion 2012-13 season, Oklahoma City became just the second team in NBA history (Boston Celtics; 1955-60) to increase its winning percentage for five consecutive seasons while maintaining a winning percentage of .700 or better in two of those seasons.

During the 2009-10 season, Oklahoma City experienced one of the largest turnarounds in NBA history. A year after winning 23 games, the Thunder concluded the 2009-10 season with a 50-32 record (.610) and captured the franchise's first playoff berth in Oklahoma City. The 27-win improvement was tied for the eighth-largest improvement in NBA history. Presti was named NBA Executive of the Year by Sporting News at the conclusion of the season.

During his tenure in OKC, Presti has hired three head coaches. Scott Brooks (2011) and Billy Donovan (2020) both earned Coach of the Year honors and Mark Daigneault, who was hired prior to the start of the 2020-21 season came second in 2022-23 Coach of the Year voting. Daigneault also became the first person in league history to serve as both head coach of a team's G League and NBA franchise.

Since 2010, the Thunder have produced the most front office members who have become general managers, as Rich Cho, Will Dawkins, Rob Hennigan, Michael Winger and Troy Weaver were all hired from the Thunder into that respective role.

After moving to Oklahoma City in July of 2008, Presti has stressed the importance of community involvement for both Thunder players and staff. Under his leadership, Thunder players have made more than 2,650 community appearances in and around Oklahoma City. Presti has also made it policy for every new player and staff member to tour the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum soon after joining the organization. Presti has also fostered staff wellness through the Thunder's long-standing work with the University of Pennsylvania, who is the leader in the areas of resilience and optimism training.

At the request of former NBA Commissioner David Stern and then Deputy Commissioner Adam Silver, Presti was named to the league's first-ever Competition Committee in May of 2012. During his term, which concluded prior to the 2018-19 season, Presti was a part of the committee that enacted several rule changes, such as concussion protocol, a package of rules to increase game flow, player rest policies, anti-flopping rules, deliberate away-from-the-play fouls, modifications to playoff seeding, qualification and tie-breakers, and adjustments to the NBA Finals scheduling format.

Additionally, Presti was asked to serve on the NBA's Instant Replay Committee in 2009, which helped to lay the groundwork for rules changes that the Competition Committee would later make regarding instant replay expansion and the expanded use of the replay center. He has also been a part of the General Manager Sub-Committee which was designed to help identify opportunities to enhance the future of the NBA.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Presti held a variety of roles with the San Antonio Spurs. After starting in 2000 as a video intern for Gregg Popovich, Presti moved up through the front office ranks under the leadership of R.C. Buford before being elevated to the position of Vice President and Assistant General Manager. As a member of the Spurs, Presti was part of NBA Championship teams in 2003, 2005 and 2007, as well as five division titles.

Presti earned his bachelor's degree in 2000 in communications, politics and law with a minor in psychology from Emerson College in Boston, where he was the first Rhodes Scholar nominee in school history. The Concord, Mass. native served as team captain of the Emerson College basketball team during both his junior and senior seasons. In addition, Presti earned All-Academic honors two times and was twice selected to the Great Northeast Athletic Conference All-Tournament team.

He was honored with the Emerson College Young Alumnus Award in 2005. Presti has also completed Harvard University's Continuing Education program on leadership and decision-making.

Consistent with his organizational commitment to community involvement, Presti has been equally supportive of several worthy causes in his personal life.

Presti was elected as a member of the Executive Committee at the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum after previously serving on the Board of Trustees. While on the Board, Presti helped lead the Memorial's Oklahoma Standard campaign, a movement built on the foundation of resilience, compassion, consistent acts of honor, service and kindness.

In June of 2019, the Presti family became significant benefactors to the Children's Hospital at OU Medicine, as their contributions provided renovations and upgrades to two procedure rooms at the Jimmy Everest Center for Cancer and Blood Disorders for Children and the Bone Marrow Transplant Unit at The Children's Hospital. The Presti's philanthropy also contributed to a significant construction project in the east lobby of The Children's Center. Renamed the "Presti Clubhouse," the east lobby now provides a nurturing and interactive space for children and their parents.

During July 2020, Presti and his high school teammate, friend and CAA Sports executive Mike Johnson launched the Thunder Fellows Program, a partnership between the Thunder and CAA Sports intended to unlock new opportunities in sports, technology and entertainment for Black students in the Tulsa area. Located in the Historic Greenwood District of Tulsa, the curriculum offered through the Thunder Fellows Program aims to close these gaps and increase the odds of high school and college completion through mentorship, skill development, and the provision of practical experience. Students are exposed to a variety of disciplines within Thunder basketball operations, where they will work on real-world projects for the organization.

In recent years, Presti led a fundraising initiative to establish a scholarship in honor of Mike Brown at his alma mater, Emerson College. The scholarship will support incoming students from historically underserved and underrepresented backgrounds with financial need.

Since 2011 Presti has impacted the lives of over 500 students who have gone through his Forward Thinking Leadership Development Program. In partnership with Oklahoma City Public Schools, the program aims to help the next generation of youth in the local community. Starting in 2019, Presti incorporated UPenn and their standard bearing resilience and optimism training for the students who are part of the Forward Thinking group.

Through the years, Presti has been involved with PeacePlayers International (PPI), a global outreach program focused on bringing children and communities together through the game of basketball. In 2018, Presti brought PPI together with the Oklahoma City Police Athletic League and made a significant donation to help the two parties develop programs together to foster positive relations with youth and law enforcement.

During September of 2021 Oklahoma City University announced the induction of Presti into the Oklahoma Commerce and Industry Hall of Honor which recognizes business and community leaders who have made significant contributions to the growth and development of Oklahoma. Financial support for the Hall of Honor provides scholarships for students at OCU's Meinders School of Business.

In 2016, Presti was awarded the Humanitarian Award from the Oklahoma Center for Community and Justice thanks to his work in the area of diversity and inclusion in the workplace. He was bestowed the honor of the 2016 Oklahoman of the Year by Oklahoma Magazine. Presti was recognized as Oklahoma City University's 2012-13 recipient of the Abe Lemons/Paul Hansen Award for Sports Excellence and he also won the Oklahoma March of Dimes Sports Headliner Special Award for 2013.

A skilled drummer, Presti has produced three music CDs with all proceeds benefiting the Extra Ordinary Needs Fund at Children's Hospital in Boston. Also, Presti established the Keenan Smith-Anthony Halls Scholarship Fund at his former high school, Concord-Carlisle, to assist underserved students with their college tuition.

Presti and his wife, Shannon, have a son, Nicholas and twin daughters, Millie and Elise.

MARK DAIGNEAULT
HEAD COACH

Mark Daigneault (DAYG-nalt) was named head coach of the Oklahoma City Thunder on Nov. 11, 2020. He is the fourth head coach in Thunder history and the first person to become an NBA team's head coach after previously being the club's G League head coach. He is the second-youngest active head coach in the NBA.

Last season, Daigneault finished second in coach of the year voting after leading the Thunder to a 40-42 record and an appearance in the Play-In Tournament. The Thunder set team records for points scored in a game twice during the season (153 vs. HOU, 2/4/23 and 150 vs. BOS, 1/3/23). Under his tutelage, Oklahoma City ranked fourth in the league in steals (8.24) and scored the second-most points off turnovers (20.6) in the NBA. The Thunder recorded 17 double-digit comeback wins, tied for the most in the league.

During the 2021-22 season, Daigneault led the youngest team in NBA history to eight 15-plus point comeback wins, tied for the third most such wins since 1996-97. It was tied for the most comebacks after trailing by 15-plus points by any Thunder team with the 2019-20 Thunder team. Prior to the All-Star Break, the Thunder boasted a stout defense, ranking eighth in defensive rating at 108.6.

He spent the 2019-20 season as an assistant coach for Oklahoma City and became the fourth-straight head coach of the Thunder's G League affiliate to make the move to an NBA bench. Previously, Daigneault served for five seasons as the head coach of the Oklahoma City Blue, the longest tenured coach in franchise history. During his tenure, he led the Blue to four playoff appearances and a 143-107 (.572) record, the most wins by a coach in franchise history. Daigneault also coached the Thunder's Summer League team for three summers.

Daigneault led the Blue to its third consecutive division championship in the 2018-19 season, as the team tied a franchise record with 34 wins and advanced to the conference semifinals. The Massachusetts native was named NBA G League Coach of the Month three times in his tenure, including twice during the 2018-19 season.

During the 2017-18 campaign, the Blue finished the regular season at the top of the Midwest division and ranked third in the Western Conference. The 2016-17 season saw several records set, as Daigneault led the team to a franchise-record-tying 34 wins. The Blue finished as the regular-season Western Conference Champions and advanced to the Western Conference Finals for the first time under Daigneault.

In 2015-16, Daigneault joined Billy Donovan's Thunder coaching staff midseason on Feb. 17 in place of Thunder assistant Maurice Cheeks, who was sidelined for six weeks due to hip surgery. Daigneault remained with the Thunder for the conclusion of the 2015-16 season and entirety of the Thunder's postseason campaign to the Western Conference Finals.

Under his watch, the Blue had eight players called up to NBA rosters, four players signed to Two-Way Contracts and 10 Thunder players assigned.

Daigneault came to Oklahoma City after spending four years working under Donovan at the University of Florida, where he last held the position of assistant to the head coach. Throughout his four years at Florida, the Gators totaled a record of 120-30 (.800), won three SEC titles and advanced to the Elite Eight each year.

Prior to his time at Florida, Daigneault spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Holy Cross. During Daigneault's tenure, the Crusaders finished as runner-up of the Patriot League Championship in 2008-09.

A 2007 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Daigneault served as a student manager with the Huskies under Jim Calhoun from 2003-07. The Oklahoma City Blue is set to begin its 16th season as the Thunder's NBA G League affiliate. Originally purchased in 2008 by the Professional Basketball Club, LLC, the Thunder's development team played its first six seasons as the Tulsa 66ers before being relocated to Oklahoma City in 2014.

The Blue returns to the court for the 2023-24 season after finishing the 2022-23 regular season with a 13-19 record and an 8-10 mark through the Showcase Cup schedule.

The Thunder has displayed a strong history of utilizing its G League affiliate for developing talented players and staff. Entering his second season as the Blue Head Coach, Kam Woods previously served as an assistant coach with the Thunder in the 2021-22 season. The Butler product returned to the program after he played two seasons with the Blue (2015-2017) before starting his coaching career.

The past five coaches of this team have received "call-ups" to the NBA ranks. Mark Daigneault (2014-19) was named Head Coach of the Oklahoma City Thunder on Nov. 11, 2020 after spending the 2019-20 season as an assistant on the Thunder bench. Grant Gibbs was named a Thunder assistant coach on Sept. 23, 2022, after leading the Blue for three seasons from 2019-2022.

Darko Rajakovic (2012-14) is the head coach of the Toronto Raptors and began his career with the Thunder while Dale Osbourne (2011-12) and Nate Tibbets (2009-11) both serve as an assistant coach with the Orlando Magic.

Thunder two-way guard Lindy Waters III thrived in the G League and was signed to a two-way contract with the Oklahoma City Thunder on Feb 10th of 2022 and again on August 18th, 2023. During the 21-22 season, the Blue saw a franchise record seven NBA assignments throughout the year and seven NBA call-ups to the Thunder bench.

Since becoming the Oklahoma City Blue in 2014, the Blue has posted a winning record in five seasons and made four playoff appearances during that span.

KAMERON WOODS

HEAD COACH

Kameron Woods was named the eighth head coach in Oklahoma City Blue history on Sept. 23, 2022. Woods just completed his first season as assistant coach for the Thunder, and his fourth season with the organization overall.

RUMBLE'S STORY:

This tale has been told around campfires for hundreds of years. A great herd of American bison was lost in the Arbuckle Mountains during a ferocious storm – the kind only Oklahoma can produce. Hail fell and tornadoes spun all around the herd as they stampeded, trying to find their way down to the safety of the plains. One lone bison stayed behind as he helped each of his friends escape down a treacherous ravine. Once all of his friends were safe, he began his descent only to find his way blocked by fallen boulders. Lost, he climbed to the tallest peak; left to face the storm alone and searching for a way down the mountain, he was struck by a bolt of lightning. The bolt did not destroy him, but, by the power of the god of thunder, changed him. Suddenly, he walked on two legs like a man. He possessed amazing strength and agility – he could jump higher, run faster, think more clearly than any beast. But because he was no longer just a bison – and yet not a man – he was alone. With many sightings, the legend grew through the years, of a mighty bison, with remarkable powers, roaming the hills alone. Not until a group of men who carried similar powers came to Oklahoma City did he find somewhere he belonged. These men also possessed the power to jump higher, run faster, and perform acrobatic dunks more spectacular than anyone in the land. They too carried the roar of Thunder every time they took to the court. So, he joined their team, and the new legend of Rumble was born.

DANNY BARTH

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

An NBA executive entering his 26th season, Danny Barth has served in his current position of Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer and as NBA Alternate Governor of the Oklahoma City Thunder since the team's inaugural season in 2008. In his executive role, he oversees all aspects of the team's business operations, driving its emphasis on building community partnerships and creating a first-class fan experience.

After overseeing the franchise's business operations move to Oklahoma City, Barth shifted his focus to the team's growth and development, including managing the remodel of the club's Oklahoma City arena to meet not only NBA requirements but also to provide a strong fan focused environment. The facility upgrades included new hospitality areas, enhanced seating and sightlines, modernized common areas and concourses, and the team's permanent corporate office. More recently, Barth has been an integral part of overseeing the negotiations for the team's significant increase in its regional television rights, the club's jersey patch partnership, and the new arena naming rights partner.

Under Barth's leadership, the Thunder has become regarded throughout the industry as a leader in sports business and a model for best practices. The Thunder consistently ranks at the top of the NBA's Net Promoter Score and overall game experience and has been the highest or runner-up for many years. Within its first five seasons in Oklahoma City, the team was recognized by ESPN The Magazine in its Ultimate Standings as the No. 1 professional sports franchise in North America and was awarded Sports Team of the Year by the Sports Business Awards, presented by the Sports Business Journal. The national Make-A-Wish Foundation has honored the team with a Chris Greicius Celebrity Award, and Leadership Oklahoma has recognized the team with its Statewide Community Leadership Award.

Barth is active in the Oklahoma City community, serving on several charitable boards and committees, including United Way of Central Oklahoma, Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma, and Downtown Oklahoma City Partnership.

Prior to his work with the Thunder, Barth served as Interim President and CEO for two seasons with the Seattle Supersonics, having previously held positions as Chief Financial officer, Vice President of Finance, and Controller for the team. He began his career with Price Waterhouse LLC, spending six years in the audit division in the corporation's Seattle and New York offices, where he specialized in retail and investment banking. Capitalizing on the unique opportunity to build Oklahoma City's first major league sports team from the ground up, Byrnes continues to design and implement initiatives that reach beyond the Thunder's regional influence, marking the team as one of the pillars of the NBA's global stage. The programs under Byrnes' oversight span platforms including education, wellness, social justice, entrepreneurial development and meaningful guest experiences - diversifying the Thunder's entertainment brand to elevate and advance Oklahoma City and Oklahoma alike. Under Byrnes' direction, these programs cultivate a culture of corporate leadership aimed at driving meaningful fan engagement with a relentless approach to creating conditions for people to thrive. This holistic effort is focused on bolstering the team's commitment to its core values and maintaining emphasis on forward momentum and sustainability - all while building organizational legacy in real time.

Previously, Byrnes served as executive vice president of business operations for the NHL's Phoenix Coyotes, guiding the organization through an organizational rebranding in conjunction with a transition to a new venue. 2023 NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE/ATTENDANCE

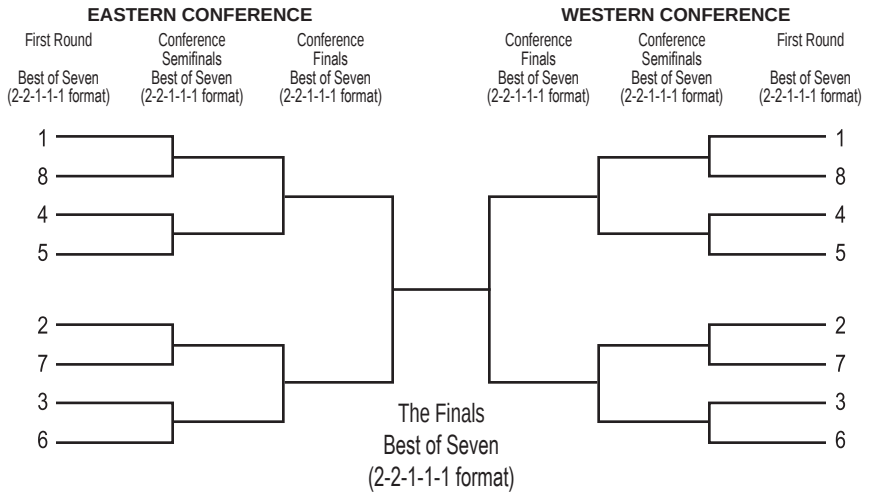
2023 NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE



Eight teams from each conference qualify for the NBA Playoffs. The three division winners and the team with the next-best record from each conference will receive the top four seeds and will be ranked Nos. 1-4 according to their regular-season records. The remaining four teams in each conference will be seeded 5-8 according to their won-lost records. The Play-In Tournament will determine the teams that will fill the seventh and eighth playoff seeds in each conference. The Play-In Tournament, which will take place after the regular season and before the first round of the playoffs, will include the teams with the seventh-highest through the tenth-highest winning percentages in each conference. In each round of the playoffs, the team with the better regular-season won-lost record gets the home-court advantage. All rounds of the playoffs are a best-of-seven series. Each best-of-seven series will play 2-2-1-1-1 format.

THUNDER ION

POWERED BY OU Health

The Oklahoma City Thunder began calling the Thunder ION home just prior to the start of the 2011-12 season. The 53,000 square foot state-of-the-art practice facility features two full-sized basketball courts, a 27-seat team classroom and a hydrotherapy area which was designed to benefit the Thunder's medical and training staff in the prevention and rehabilitation of injuries.

Funding for the construction of the practice facility and renovations to Paycom Center comes from a one-cent sales tax approved by Oklahoma City voters on March 4, 2008. The 15-month tax took effect on January 1, 2009 and ran through March 31, 2010. As part of the lease agreement, the Thunder will make an annual rent payment to the City of Oklahoma City.

During the groundbreaking ceremony in August of 2009, Oklahoma City Mayor Mick Cornett commented, "Having the Thunder in Oklahoma City has been a tremendous sense of pride for our community. When the citizens of Oklahoma City passed the Big League City initiative to renovate the city's downtown arena and build an NBA-leading practice facility, we all looked forward to this day."
